

BOLOGNA GOES DIGITAL

Allianz Forum Berlin, Germany

26 September 2018

09:00 – 10:00	Registration and coffee
10:00 – 10:20	Welcome Remarks Dr Dorothea Rüländ, Secretary General, DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service)
10:20 – 11:00	Keynote How digitalisation will change the face of the higher education landscape in Europe Prof Dr Valérie Lemarquand, Attaché for Higher Education, French Embassy Berlin
11:00 – 11:30	Coffee Break
11:30 – 12:45	Panel discussion Looking ahead: the impact of digital transformation on student mobility, teaching, and learning Christian Müller, Deputy Secretary General, DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service) Prof Dr Kornelia Freitag, Vice-Rector for Academic Affairs and Faculty Development, Ruhr-University Bochum Oliver Janoschka, General Manager, HFD (German Forum for Higher Education in the Digital Age) Darco Jansen, Programme Manager, EADTU (European Association of Distance Teaching Universities) Prof Dr Jürgen Handke, Philipps-University Marburg Moderator: Dr Christine Redecker, Researcher, IPTS (Institute for Prospective Technological Studies), European Commission
12:45 – 13:45	Lunch and networking

SPONSORED BY THE

Federal Ministry of Education and Research

Concurrent Sessions
	Workshop 1 (120 minutes) Room E042	Workshop 2 (120 minutes) Room R4030	Session 1 (50 minutes) Room R4022	Session 2 (50 minutes) Room Rotunde
13:45 – 14:45	On the potential of digital tools to open up higher education and widen international participation through induction courses	Collaboration is the key: digitalisation and internationalisation	Recognition in the digital age: opportunities and challenges	Using blended-learning formats in international study programmes: collaborative approaches
	Dr Renata Suter Head of Research Dr Vera Loureiro de Assunção Department Coordinator Propaedeutics Kiron Open Higher Education Peter van der Hijden Independent European Higher Education Expert Dr Dominic Orr Senior Researcher FiBS Research Institute	Alexander Knoth Advisor Digitalisation of Teaching/ International Affairs to the Vice-President Susanne Gnädig Research Assistant René Wolf University of Potsdam	Jenneke Lokhoff Senior Policy Officer Katrien Bardoel Senior Policy Officer Nuffic	Dr Lars Klein Cluster Coordinator Dr Senka Neuman Stanivukovic Assistant Professor U4 Network
	Room Change (10 minutes)

	Workshop 1 continues	Workshop 2 continues	Session 3 (50 minutes) Room Rotunde	Session 4 (50 minutes) Room R4022
14:45 – 15:45			How the world's biggest student exchange programme is going digital	Quality of credentials in open education: pathways and technologies for recognition, transparency, and portability
			João Bacelar Executive Manager European University Foundation	Anthony F. Camilleri Senior Partner Knowledge Innovation Centre Florian Rampelt Programme Manager German Forum for Higher Education in the Digital Age
15:45 – 16:15	Coffee Break
16:15 – 17:30	Panel Debate Taking Bologna to the next level: policy recommendations for successful cooperation in the digital age Dr Wiebke Esdar, Member of Parliament, German Bundestag Dr Dorothea Rüländ, Secretary General, DAAD (German Academic Exchange Service) Peter Hassenbach, Head of Division “International Exchanges in Higher Education, Internationalisation”, German Federal Ministry of Education and Research Dik van der Wal, Manager International Services, DUO (Dienst Uitvoering Onderwijs) Martin Kern, Director, EIT (European Institute of Technology and Innovation) Prof Dr Ramin Yahyapour, CIO, Georg-August University Göttingen Moderator: Ali Aslan, Berlin
17:30 – 18:30	Wrap Up and Goodbye Gallery, 4th floor			