Kiel Institute Policy Lunch at the Hertie School of Governance on Resolving the Eurozone Debt Crisis

The Eurozone debt crisis is a massive threat to Europe's common currency. The current economic downturn will further aggravate the problems. The Eurozone urgently needs convincing solutions. At the Kiel Institute Policy Lunch at the Hertie School of Governance, Jeromin Zettelmeyer and Stefan Kooths will present lessons from past debt restructurings and discuss their implications for the current situation in the Eurozone. They will also propose ways in which the Eurozone governance structure should be reformed. The talk will be chaired and moderated by Henrik Enderlein.

We hope to welcome you to what promises to be a stimulating discussion.

The Kiel Policy Lunch at the Hertie School of Governance is jointly organized by the Kiel Institute for the World Economy and the Hertie School. This series aims at introducing innovative, solution-oriented, and practical policy proposals for important global challenges.
