It's Not Just About Euro

Democracy, work, equality - A new horizon for Europe

Massimo D'Alema's new book proposes a different Europe. It develops a concrete proposal for Europe to finally move beyond austerity to a more democratic and inclusive Union, able to recover its role on the international stage. This is a passionate exhortation for progressives to address the crucial decisions that lie ahead.

Massimo D'Alema, former Prime Minister of Italy, is President of the Fondazione Italianeuropei and the Foundation for European Progressive Studies (FEPS).
