

EUROPEAN CLIMATE DIPLOMACY DAY

How does climate change concern you?

Berlin, 17 June 2015

Follow us on twitter #ClimateDiploDay

Moderator: Dr. Sabrina Schulz, E3G

17.00-18.00 Arrival and twitter wall

18.00-18.20 Official video of COP 21

Welcome by HE Mr. Philippe Etienne, French Ambassador to Germany,
By Mr. Peter Fischer, Deputy Director General for Globalisation, Energy and Climate Policy, Federal Foreign Office as well as by HMA Sir Simon McDonald,
British Ambassador to Germany

18.20-18.25 Video on EU Climate action

18.30-19.15 Panel Discussion: How does climate change concern you?

Examples of adaptation and mitigation from every day's life: citizens, the business sector and (international) politics

Mr. Patrick Jouin, Mayor of La Faute-sur-Mer, France
"How do local authorities deal with climate change?"

Ms. Laura Aylett, Global Carbon Calculator Team, International Climate Change
at Department of Energy and Climate Change (DECC), London
"Prosperous living for the world in 2050: lessons from the Global Calculator"

Professor Dr. Gernot Klepper, Professor at the Kiel Institute for the World
Economy, Germany
"National and international policies: How to tackle climate change?"

19.15-20.00 Discussion with the Audience

20:00-21.00 Drinks and finger food, multimedia presentation of material from across the climate diplomacy network