

Programme – Wednesday, 14 June

| Time          |  |  |   |  |
|---------------|--|--|---|--|
| 09:00 – 10:30 | Opening plenary Peter Weingarten, head of Thünen Institute of Rural Studies Ulrike Grabski-Kieron, spokesperson of the Rural Geography Group (DGfG) Annett Steinführer, Anna-Barbara Heindl, organising team           Venue: Forum 1   |  |   |  |
| 10:30 – 11:00 | Coffee Break  |  |   |  |
| 11:00 – 12:30 | Keynotes: Sarah Skerratt, Scotland's Rural College, Great Britain: "Rural communities revisited: on empowerment, resilience and complexities – making the invisible visible" Susanne Stenbacka, Uppsala University, Sweden: "Gender relations and rurality: construction of spatial identities and implications for planning"           Venue: Forum 1  |  |   |  |
| 12:30 – 13:30 | Lunch Break   |  |   |  |
|               | Parallell sessions  |  | Parallell sessions   |  |
| 13:45 – 15:45 | Civic engagement in rural areas           Session chair: M. Woods P. A. Berger / M. Tulaszewski / H. Fischer: Markets of Singularities. Socio-cultural and religious networks in Mecklenburg-West Pomerania Z. Kruzmetra: Culture-led practices for renewal of society in rural areas of Latvia A. Margarian / J.-C. Peters: Can civic engagement effectively support social inclusion? A spatially explicit model J. Reda / S. Ehret: Investigating the heartbeat of rural development – metaphors of civic engagement in a rural development discourse           Venue: Forum 2 | Disappearing and newly emerging basic services I           Session chair: A.-B. Heindl S. Neumeier: Why can street petrol station shops not be an alternative to a missing local food supplier? Contribution to the German discourse on 'Daseinsvorsorge' T. Haartsen / B. Bock: The perceived importance of facilities for rural citizens in Fryslân, the Netherlands U. Jürgens: Who frequents village shops? Studies in rural German areas M. Mießner: Political struggles in German spatial planning about the empty signifier 'equivalence of living conditions'           Venue: A12 lecture-hall | Rural ageing: actors, structures, impacts           Session chair: S. Kordel M. Petrová Kafková: Ageing in rural areas: case of the Czech Republic A. Steinführer: Coping capabilities and service use of the elderly: findings from rural Germany N. Mehnen / P. Schaal / E. Schäfer: Demographic change in the Wadden Sea region – situation analysis, stakeholder involvement and development strategies in tourism municipalities           Venue: Forum 1 | Rural governance and participatory processes I           Session chair: I. Mose S. Kundolf: Decision making processes in rural regeneration partnerships: participation and influences of new and weak actors G. Robinson: Playing and participating: engaging communities in rural development through participology S. Schmitz: Draw me a sheep: a pedagogical tool to discover the complexity of rural planning           Venue: AT lecture-hall |
| 15:45 – 16:15 | Coffee Break  |  |   |  |
|               | Parallell sessions  |  | Parallell sessions   |  |
| 16:30 – 18:00 | Material and immaterial values of farmland           Session chair: I. Mose Y. Le Caro: An axiological exploration of farmland from focus groups in western France A. Tietz: Non-agricultural investors in German agricultural companies A. Reichert-Schick / J. Hollweg: Investors on farmland markets in East Germany: actors, implications and control option           Venue: A12 lecture-hall  | Newcomers as actors of rural change           Session chair: A. Steinführer D. Meschter / P. Mehl: The integration of refugees: a chance for rural areas? Case studies in Germany T. Weidinger: Learning rural areas: refugees as drivers of economic and social change in Lower Bavaria, Germany S. Meier: On the doorstep: refugee experiences of solidarity in the German region South Westphalia           Venue: Forum 1   | Constructions of the rural I           Session chair: K. Halfacree G. Tuitjer: The house of one's own – materialisation of the rural idyll? A. Decker: Entrepreneurship and activism in rural Czech Republic: educational visitor programmes on family farms A. Navarro: Resurgence of open air food markets: symbol or mirror of the rurality?           Venue: AT lecture-hall   | The contemporary role of agriculture for rural areas I           Session chair: S. Depraz K. P. Schumacher: The geography of manure in northern Germany S. Witzel: Digitisation – a chance for women in agriculture? H. Pina: Olive cultivation in the Douro Region (NE Portugal), where tradition and innovation combine           Venue: Forum 2  |
| 18:15 – 19:00 | Poster session  |  |   |  |
| 19:00         | Welcome reception Thünen Institute Folkhard Isermeryer, president of the Johann Heinrich von Thünen Institute  |  |   |  |

Programme – Thursday, 15 June

| Time                 | Parallell sessions   |   | Parallell sessions  |   |
|----------------------|--|---|---|---|
| 09:00 – 10:30 | EU policies and rural developmentSession chair: U. Grabski-KieronF. Navarro : Social innovation in LEADER approach in Puglia (Italy) and Andalusia (Spain) in 2007 – 2013 cycle programmingB. O'Keeffe : The legacy of LEADER and perceptions of rural development in IrelandK. Pollermann : Results of the LEADER-approach: findings from evaluation of LEADER-regions in GermanyVenue: Forum 1  | Disappearing and newly emerging basic services IISession chair: S. NeumeierI. Sirodoev : Do disappearing infrastructure and services represent a declining provision or an increasing optimisation? The case study of Argeş county (Romania)A. Klärner : Is rural poverty some-thing special? A case study in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern, GermanyS. Kroismayr : The relationship between the municipal authorities and the local community after the closure of a small primary school – some evidence from AustriaVenue: Forum 2  | Economic structures and development of rural areas ISession chair: P. KüpperK. Schuster : Occupational choice from a spatial perspective: some stylised facts and a micro foundationM. Graffenberger : Relational configurations in innovation processes: insights from businesses in peripheral regions in Estonia and SaxonyL. Kvarantan / S. Henn : Highly-skilled migrants in peripheral areas: a potential for small and medium-sized enterprises?Venue: A12 lecture-hall |   |
| 10:30 – 11:00 | Coffee Break   |   |   |   |
| 11:00 – 11:30 | Keynotes:Luís Chaves, Minha Terra, Portugal: “From LEADER to Community-Led Local Development: A critical perspective on European rural policies”Venue: Forum 1  |   |   |   |
| 11:30 – 12:30 | Round table debate:“Shaping rural areas with EU policies: LEADER’s achievements, impediments and the role of science”Sabine Weizenegger, Regional Development Agency Oberallgäu, Germany – Luís Chaves, Minha Terra –Venue: Forum 1  |   | Petra Raue, Thünen Institute of Rural Studies  |   |
| 12:30 – 13:30 | Lunch Break  |   |   |   |
|                      | Parallell sessions   |   |   |   |
| 13:45 – 15:45 | Tourism and cultural landscapes: matters for rural developmentSession chair: U. Grabski-KieronA. Voth : Heritage protection, tourism and rural development in the Alpujarra: initiatives and challenges in a Mediterranean mountain area (Sierra Nevada, Spain)S. Panzer-Krause : Potentials for a sustainability transition in the tourism industry on the island of Rügen, GermanyI. Mose / N. Mehnen : Sustainability, governance and tourism in English national parks – what can we learn from the Peak Park case?G. Staacke : The impact of the renewable energies “wind energy, photovoltaic and bioenergy” on cultural landscapes – development of a new evaluation methodVenue: AT lecture-hall | Rural energy transitions: exploring the rural dimension of socio-technical change ISession chair: M. Naumann / M. PhillipsG. Pierre : The social construction of renewable energy projects: through localised social relationsE. Roberts : Living at “the end of the line”: exploring everyday energyscapes in rural northwest WalesJ. Dickie / M. Phillips : Living in an energised countryside: public discourses and narratives to the self in village EnglandF. Authier : Analysis of the role of social capital on renewable energy projects achievement and territorial development: case studies of two endogenous renewable energy projects in France and GermanyVenue: Forum 1 | Coming and staying: changing population structuresSession chair: A. SteinführerT. Haartsen : From stayers to staying: young adult stayers in depopulating rural areasS. Kordel : Invisible population as powerful protagonists in rural areas? Local implications of US-soldiers in rural GermanyM. Woods : Precarious rural cosmopolitanism and neoliberal globalisation in Irish small townsVenue: Forum 2   | Rural governance and participatory processes IISession chair: N. NeumeierM. Méténier : Facing rural gentrification in protected areas of England: the community land trusts as actors of rural changeŠ. Guštin : Conflicts as catalysts of change in rural areasP. Raue : The interdependence between local institutional settings and governance arrangements in LEADERC. Lüer : The European Grouping of Territorial Cooperation (EGTC) as an EU instrument to promote cooperation in rural cross-border areasVenue: A12 lecture-hall |
| 15:45 – 16:15 | Coffee Break   |   |   |   |
|                      | Parallell sessions   |   |   |   |
| 16:30 – 18:00 | Constructions of the rural IISession chair: A.-B. HeindlK. Halfacree : Loving the rural: superficial banality or topophilia connection?F. Dünckmann : Politics of the idyllV. M. Carlow : Exo Village, Peri Urb, and Meta Town: TOPOI of settlement types in the METAPOLISVenue: AT lecture-hall  | Newcomers and transient population in rural areasSession chair: S. KordelM. Phillips : Revisiting Pahl’s countryside: an examination of transformations in gentrification of rural HertfordshireS. Depraz : Rural gentrification in France: a critical approachM. Eimermann : Recognising opportunities? Rural place marketing and lifestyle movers in northern SwedenVenue: Forum 1   | Economic structures and development of rural areas IISession chair: P. KüpperJ.-C. Peters : Quantifying the effect of labour market size on learning externalitiesF. X. Armas Quintá : Approach to new rural area functions in the information society. A case study in Galicia (Spain)J. Walsh : Revitalising Ireland’s rural economy: challenges and opportunitiesVenue: Forum 2   |   |
| 18:15 – 19:00 | Transfer to Old Town Hall  |   |   |   |
| 19:00         | Reception by City of Braunschweig, Old Town Hall   |   |   |   |

Programme – Friday, 16 June 2017

| Time                 | Parallell sessions   |  | Parallell sessions  |
|----------------------|--|--|---|
| 09:00 – 10:30 | Territorial disparities and spatial dynamicsSession chair: I.-V. StoicaA. Baysse-Lainé : The impact of the Terre de Liens civil society land trust on the access to the land of alternative farmers. A land-related tool to support food relocalisation in FranceP. Küpper : Delimitation and typology of rural areas in GermanyF. Navarro : The lack of rural development initiatives for deep rural areas. The case of the LEADER approach in Andalusia (Spain) in 2007 – 2013 periodVenue: Forum 2 | The contemporary role of agriculture for rural areas IISession chair: K. M. BornJ. Kister / G. Rainer : Going global – re-inventing the local: the quality turn in wine production and regional restructuring in South TyrolA. Firmino : Olive groves in Portugal: a challenge to actors of rural changeP. Jutteau : Do the agricultural structures and economic conditions of rural spaces influence the forms of organisation and ownership in the biogas sector?Venue: AT lecture-hall   | Dimensions of rural quality of lifeSession chair: T. HaartsenT. Mettenberger : “You don’t want to raise your kids in Berlin”: hard and soft location factors for attracting general practitioners to rural regionsR. Nadler : The elephant in the Room. On the relation of demographic change, public services and civic engagementJ. Kreis : Quality of life in rural areas in Germany: work-family balance as a component of quality of lifeVenue: Forum 1 |
| 10:30 – 11:00 | Coffee Break   |  |   |
| 11:00 – 12:45 | Poster and photo awardsKeynotes:Christine Tamásy, University of Vechta, Germany : “Sustainable development or excessive exploitation?”Ioan Ianoş, University of Bucharest, Romania : “Territorial disparities and village dynamics in Romania:Venue: Forum 1  |  | A transition management perspective on areas of intensive agriculture” post-socialist trajectories and post-accession challenges”  |
| 12:45 – 13:30 | Lunch Break  |  |   |
|                      | Parallell sessions   |  |   |
| 13:45 – 15:45 | The urban in the rural and the rural in the urbanSession chair: Y. Le CaroD. Deville : Urban agriculture and precarity: grow for a better food safetyU. Grabski-Kieron : “Baukultur” in the revitalisation of areas in small and medium-sized rural towns with declining populationsI.-V. Stoica : Challenges of small towns in Romania – heading towards a rural future?Venue: AT lecture-hall   | Rural energy transitions: exploring the rural dimension of socio-technical change IISession chair: M. Naumann / M. PhillipsF. Weber / O. Kühne : Energy transition and upheaval – the impact of grid extension and wind turbine plants in rural GermanyL. Holstenkamp : Are rural community energy companies more inclusive than their urban counterparts? Rural-urban differences in the German community energy sectorA. Schaffrin : The dynamics of energy networks for regional innovationM. Naumann / D. Rudolph : The intricate relationship between energy transitions and regional marginalisation – insights from wind farm developments in rural Germany and DenmarkVenue: Fourm 1 | New forms of agriculture and food productionSession chair: A. FirminoC.-T. Soulard : From grassroots initiatives to urban food system governance? Case studies in Montpellier and ToulouseJ. McCarthy : From co-production to co-discipline: emergent agrienvironmental governance in the Republic of IrelandA. F. Tulla : Social Farming (SF) in the Barcelona periurban area: a social and ecological urban agriculture alternativeVenue: Fourm 2          |
| 15:45 – 16:00 | Coffee Break   |  |   |
| 16:00         | Closing ceremonyIngo Mose, spokesperson Rural Geography GroupAnnett Steinführer, Anna-Barbara Heindl, organising teamVenue: Forum 1   |  |   |

Programme – Saturday, 17 June

---

| Time          | Field trip  |
|----------------------|---|
| 07:45 – 18:00 | Wendland: Peripherality revisitedDeparture: 07:45Approx. time of return: 18:00Venue: Main entrance of the Thünen Institute, Bundesallee 50                             |
| 08:30 – 18:00 | Vorharz: The former inner German border – a ‘phantom border’?Departure: 08:30Approx. time of return: 18:00Venue: Main entrance of the Thünen Institute, Bundesallee 50 |

---