Migration – Regionalization – Citizenship: Canada and Europe in Comparative Perspective

Interdisciplinary Conference on the Occasion of the 25th Anniversary of the Institute for Canadian Studies,
University of Augsburg

December 8 to 11, 2010

The Institute for Canadian Studies at Augsburg University was founded in 1985 as a joint venture of the Governments of Canada and the Free State of Bavaria, and the Volkswagen Foundation. Since then, it has developed into one of the leading interdisciplinary Canada Centers in German academia –

- specializing in Canada related teaching and research in the fields of cultural studies and social sciences,
- fostering scientific cooperation,
- promoting student exchanges, and
- advancing the understanding of Canada in the general public.
