

Data Analysis and Sampling in Mixed Methods and Multimethod Social Research

Mini-Conference organized by the
DFG Research Network Mixed Methods and Multi-Method Social Research
 In Collaboration with the Sociological Research Institute Goettingen (SOFI)
 and the Goettingen Graduate School of Social Sciences (GGG)

May 23-24, 2019

Georg-August-University Goettingen, Central Library (Zentralbibliothek)
 Platz der Goettinger Sieben 1, 37073 Goettingen
 Main Conference Room (Großer Seminarraum), 1st floor

Organizers: Felix Knappertsbusch (knapperf@hsu-hh.de),
 Andrea Hense (andrea.hense@sofi.uni-goettingen.de)

Schedule

Date	Time	Program
Thu, May 23 (in German)	9.15-10.45-	Einführung in Mixed Methods und multimethodische Forschung: methodologische Grundlagen und aktuelle Entwicklungen Felix Knappertsbusch (Helmut-Schmidt-University Hamburg)
	10.45-11.15	Coffee break (Café SUB, individual payment)
	11.15-12.45	Conference session 1: Mixed Methods Social Research Sampling und Datenanalyse in einem Mixed-Methods Forschungsprojekt zu Wissens- und Technologietransferaktivitäten von WissenschaftlerInnen Nicolai Götze, Christian Schneijderberg (International Centre for Higher Education Research Kassel) Wie stellen AkteurInnen in frühkindlicher Bildung und Betreuung potentiell Ungleichheiten her? Qualitative Mehrebenenanalyse als Werkzeug zur Relationierung elterlicher Orientierungen, institutioneller Strukturen und Praktiken von ErzieherInnen, LehrerInnen und Kindern. Sylvia Nienhaus (University of Freiburg) Qualitative Comparative Analysis (QCA) als Methode zur Analyse von Bildungsungleichheiten Lena Wegener, Veronika Philipps (Sociological Research Institute Goettingen)

	12.45-14.15	Lunch (Mensa, individual payment)
	14.15-15.45	Conference Session 2: Multimethod Social Research Methodenpluralität in der interpretativen Sozialforschung: Ein Fallbeispiel Maria Pohn-Lauggas (Georg-August-University Goettingen) Perspektivenintegration in der Grounded Theory am Beispiel schulischer Akteure Lisa Gromala (Justus-Liebig-University Giessen) Triangulation in der Biografieforschung Ina Alber-Armenat (Georg-August-University Goettingen)
	16.00	End of public event
	16.15-17.45	Expert Consultation (graduate and doctoral students, pre-registration via Göttingen Graduate School of Social Sciences)
Fri, May 24 (in English)	09:00 – 10:00	A framework for integration in mixed methods research Pat Bazeley (Western Sydney University)
	10:00 – 11:00	Methods, concepts and categories: data analysis and sociological explanation Sarah Irwin (University of Leeds)
	11:00 – 11:30	Coffee break
	11:30 – 12:30	Data analysis in mixed methods research. The challenge of integration Udo Kuckartz (Philipps-University Marburg)
	12:30 – 14:00	Lunch (Mensa, individual payment)
	14:00 – 15:00	Data integration and consolidation in mixed analyses Susanne Vogl (University of Vienna)
	15.00– 15.30	Discussion & wrap-up of mini-conference

You do not need to register for the conference, and there is no conference fee.

For more information on the DFG Research Network Mixed Methods and Multi-Method Social Research see: <https://www.hsu-hh.de/methoden/en/mixed-methods-network>