-  Tutzing is located approximately 35 km southwest of Munich on Lake Starnberg (Starnberger See).
From Munich Central Station (Hauptbahnhof): Take the urban railway S-6 (S-Bahn) or the regional train (RB) to Tutzing. At the train station in Tutzing, take the Bus 958/978 to "Klenzestraße". You will also find cabs at the front entrance of Tutzing train station. Please note our special offers for conference tickets through the Deutsche Bahn (DB) found on our Website, see contact "how to find us".
-  From the airport: Take the urban railway S-1 or S-8 to Munich Central Station and follow the instructions above.
-  You can also reach the Academy by foot from Tutzing train station. It takes you 20 to 30 minutes.
-  To reach the Academy by car, take freeway A95 from Munich via A952 to Starnberg and continue on the federal highway until you pass the town of Traubing, then take a left. At the end of the road turn right to Tutzing. The Academy is on your left shortly after passing the town sign Tutzing.
-  Our guests are invited to use the charging points of the Academy for E-vehicles (cars, scooters, bikes) free of charge.

Human Dignity and Human Rights

The Legacy of the Black Civil Rights Movement in the Transatlantic World

September 8 – 10, 2021

Conference in Cooperation with the Universities of Augsburg and Erfurt

EINLADUNG

This conference brings together a variety of scholars from Europe, Northern Africa and the USA to discuss the legacy of the Black Civil Rights Movement from a transnational and interdisciplinary perspective. We will take a closer look at the origins and uses of the concepts of human dignity and human rights within the movement and then explore how its legacy has inspired activism and organizations for racial and social justice in the transatlantic world.
