International Summer Camp at Popakademie International Summer Camp at Popakademie

From Saturday 23 to Friday 29 July 2022, the International Summer Camp will take place at the Popakademie Baden-Württemberg for the 14th time. More than 50 international musicians of various genres will come to Mannheim during this time. Applications are possible until July 10, 2022.

Five days of workshops on songwriting, singing, band coaching, music production and instrumental lessons are scheduled. The workshops are led by a top-notch international team of lecturers. This year, lecturers from Columbia College Chicago are represented from the Popakademie's worldwide university network. The highlight of the International Summer Camp is the final concert on Thursday, July 28, which will take place at the Popakademie with free admission starting at 8 pm. There, the participants will present their new songs in front of an audience.
