

Dementia care research – scientific evidence, current issues and future perspectives

an international workshop, organised and sponsored by the DZNE Rostock / Greifswald in cooperation with the DZNE Witten

Date: Monday, the 5th of September

Place: Greifswald, Germany, Felix-Hausdorff-Strasse 10

- 9.00 - 9.15 Welcome and Introduction
Wolfgang Hoffmann & Stefan Teipel, DZNE Rostock/ Greifswald
- 9.15 - 9.45 Innovative models of medical care in rural areas - a framework for translational research
Wolfgang Hoffmann, DZNE Rostock/ Greifswald, Germany
- 9.45 - 10.30 Dementia recognition, assessment and management in primary care
Malaz Boustani, IU - Indianapolis, USA
- 10.30 - 11.15 Collaborative care for people with dementia in primary care in the UK - CAREDEM
Chris Fox, UEA, Norwich, UK
- 11.15 - 12.00 Best practice strategies for need-tailored dementia care - the european project *RightTimePlaceCare
Gabriele Meyer, Witten/ Herdecke University, Germany
- 12.00 - 12.45 Improving health care via the general practitioner – the CADIF project
Horst Christian Vollmar, DZNE Witten, Germany
- 12.45 - 13.45 Lunch-break
- 13.45 - 14.30 Caregiver based interventions in the 21st century
Mary Austrom & Stephani Munger, IU Indianapolis, USA
- 14.30 - 15.00 Translating tasks and demands in routine care into qualification of Dementia Care Manager – the DelpHi study
Adina Dreier, University of Greifswald/ DZNE Rostock/Greifswald, Germany
- 15.00 - 15.30 Incongruity of perspectives: Self-expression of persons with dementia and family caregivers – systematic review
Milena von Kutzleben, DZNE Witten, Germany
- 15.30 - 16.00 Care needs – different perspectives, different outcomes? Results from the German CarenapD adaptability study
Christine Riesner, DZNE Witten, Germany
- 16.00 - 16.30 Evaluation of interdisciplinary networks to improve healthcare in Germany - IDEMUCK
René Thyrian, DZNE Rostock/ Greifswald, Germany
- 16.30 - 17.00 Discussion and closing remarks