

Fukushima Dialogue

A Japanese-German exchange on the future of energy policy

Invitation | 21 September 2011 | 9.00–10.30 a.m. (4.00 p.m. Tokyo time)

Venue: Hertie School of Governance | Friedrichstraße 180 | 10117 Berlin | Forum A

Fukushima Dialogue

Half a year after the nuclear disaster at Fukushima on 11 March 2011 the repercussions are still inestimable. Japan faces enormous environmental, economic, and social challenges and in Germany the event has led to a complete change of the energy policy strategy. Japanese and German experts will discuss key issues facing both countries such as whether the new German strategy would work in a Japanese context, alternatives to nuclear power, barriers to renewable energy diffusion and how they can be overcome. The effects of the nuclear disaster on society and what both countries can learn from foreign policies with regards to nuclear power, and disaster recovery will also be on the agenda during this transnational exchange of perspectives.

The Graduate School of Public Policy (GraSPP), University of Tokyo, and the Hertie School of Governance have been academic partners since 2009.
