Security Research Conference

FRAUNHOFER GROUP FOR DEFENSE AND SECURITY

7TH SECURITY RESEARCH CONFERENCE, BONN SEPTEMBER 4TH – 6TH, 2012

SAVE THE DATE!

Freedom is among the greatest achievements of modern society – and it is our duty to protect this freedom. The Future Security Conference brings together decision makers, public authorities, industry and scientists to discuss new ways of facing this challenge.

The conference, organized by the Fraunhofer Group for Defense and Security, takes a holistic view on security. It provides insight into technological breakthroughs as well as societal aspects of security. It brings together the experience of high-profile researchers and professionals from both industry and public authorities.

Take this opportunity to meet and discuss our Future Security with this manifold community of security experts. We look forward to hearing your opinions from September 4th until September 6th 2012 at the World Conference Center in Bonn.

TOPICS

- General (foresight and scenarios, supply chain management, crisis management, social, psychological and political aspects, ...)
- Systems (for border security, security of critical infrastructure, space security, indoor surveillance, detection of explosives, ...)
- IT-Security (cyber defense, data protection/privacy, security in networks, threat analysis, security situational awareness, cyber crime, ...)
- Protection (resistant buildings and supply networks, CBRNE, ...)
- Sensors (ultrasound, electromagnetic, optical, chemical, nuclear, ...)

VENUE

The 7th Future Security Conference will be held in the city of Bonn in the heart of the former government quarter in direct proximity to the Rhine: Plenary sessions will be held in the former German Bundestag Plenary Chamber, parallel sessions will be scheduled in meeting rooms located in the same building. Extensive parts of the lobbies are available for exhibitions. With its spirit of openness, with wonderful views of the Rhine, and with its harmonious integration into the cityscape, the “Bundeshaus” is considered to be one of the most beautiful parliament buildings in the world.

World Conference Center Bonn
Platz der Vereinten Nationen 2
