This symposium “Molecular Interactions in Malaria” is jointly organized by the Humboldt-Universität zu Berlin and The Australian National University, Canberra.

Our speakers will cover new insights into Plasmodium-host interactions including nutrient uptake and metabolism, parasite and host genetics, and responses to infection by the malaria parasite.

For registration and abstract submission please visit:
www.iri-lifesciences.de. Registration is open until March 30, 2016.
