

International Conference

Crisis as Opportunity: State, Markets and Communities in Turbulent Times

A conference of the Structure & Organization of Government (SOG) research committee of the International Political Science Association organized by the Hertie School of Governance

4-5 November 2010
Hertie School of Governance

Friedrichstrasse 180
10117 Berlin, Germany
www.hertie-school.org

Preliminary Programme*
(7 October 2010)

Thursday, 4 November 2010

9:00 - 9:30 Introductions
Welcome	Opening Remarks and Introduction by Helmut K. Anheier , Dean of the Hertie School of Governance, Germany
9:30 - 11:00 Panel I: Framing, managing and coping with the financial crisis
Papers:	Luc Juillet (University of Ottawa) How to Frame a Good Crisis: Continuity and Change in Canada's Regulatory Response to the Financial Crisis
	Arie Krampf (Max Planck Institute for the History of Science Berlin) "States, the Public Interest and the public 'Epistemic Deficit' in the Post-Neoliberal Era"
	Kutsal Yesilkagit (Utrecht University) The Shared Executive: The Machinery of Transgovernmental Administration in the European Union
Chair:	Martin Lodge (LSE)
Discussant:	Salvador Parrado (Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia Madrid)

11:00 - 11:15 Coffee Break

1

* Paper titles are preliminary, panel discussants and chairs might suffer modifications. The sessions are open to the registered participants.

11:15 - 12:45 Panel II: The state as a regulator – new directions post-crisis?
Papers:	Julia Fleischer (University of Potsdam) The Power of the Purse? On Organisational Prerequisites for finance ministries to cope with the global financial and economic crisis
	Waltraud Schelkle (London School of Economics and Social Sciences) and Deborah Mabbett (Birkbeck University of London) Consumer Protection in the EU's Financial Regulatory Agenda
	Daniel Mügge (University of Amsterdam) and Eleni Tsingou (University of Warwick) Financial Turmoil, Policy Responses an Reform Drive: what Lessons for Global Governance?
Chair:	Joel Aberbach (University of California)
Discussant:	Viktor Lapuente (University of Gothenburg)

12:45 - 13:45 Catered lunch

13:45 - 15:15 Panel III: Post-crisis regulatory regimes in health care and food safety
Papers:	Nils C. Bandelow (University of Braunschweig) and Patrick Hassenteufel (University of Versailles) Structural Financial Crisis and Strengthening of the Regulatory State. Health Care Governance Reform in France and Germany
	Bert A. Rockman (Purdue University) A New Regulatory Regime in Health Care in the United States: Path Dependencies, Incentives, Markets, Budgetary Politics, and Capability
	Julia Langbein (European University Institute) Food Safety in Crisis. How the Emergence of Public-Private Arrangements in the EU shapes Food Safety in the Developing World
Chair:	Philippe Bezes (National Center for Scientific Research Paris)
Discussant:	Per Laegreid (University of Bergen)

15:15 - 15:30 Coffee Break

15:30 - 16:45 Roundtable: Governance after the Crisis
Participants:	Mark Hallerberg (Hertie School of Governance) Werner Jann (University of Potsdam) David Levi-Faur (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem) Moshe Maor (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem) Graham K. Wilson (Boston University)
Chair:	Henrik Enderlein (Hertie School of Governance)

17:00 - 19:00 SOG meeting

* Paper titles are preliminary, panel discussants and chairs might suffer modifications. The sessions are open to the registered participants.

20:00 Dinner in nearby restaurant (for panelists)

Friday, 5 November 2010

9:00 - 10:30 Panel IV: Pre- and post-crisis public administration reforms
Papers:	David Richards (University of Sheffield) and Martin Smith (University of Sheffield) The Future of State Centric Governance in the UK: The Challenge of Post-Bureaucratic Politics
	Philippe Bezes (National Center for Scientific Research Paris) and Anne Lise Fimreite (University of Bergen) and Per Laegreid (University of Bergen) and Patrick Le Lidec (National Center for Scientific Research Paris) Reorganizing the Modern State: Specialization and Integration in Comparative Perspective
	Viktor Lapuente (University of Gothenburg) and Salvador Parrado (Universidad Nacional de Educación a Distancia Madrid) Economic Crisis and Public Employment: Why some Governments Tight Civil Servants' Belts More than others?
Chair:	David Levi-Faur (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem)
Discussant:	Robert Henry Cox (University of Oklahoma)

10:30 - 10:45 Coffee break

10:45 - 12:15 Panel V: Governance and Civil Society
Papers:	Benjamin Gidron (Heidelberg University) Governance Challenges in Light of Funding, Service Delivery and Advocacy Activities of Civil Society
	Gordon Shokley (Arizona State University) and Peter M. Frank (Wingate University) The Functions of Government in Social Entrepreneurship
	Anat Gofen (The Hebrew University of Jerusalem) Exit, Voice and Do it Yourself
	Alina Mungiu-Pippidi (Hertie School of Governance) Civil Society as a Good Governance Promoter. The Experience of East Central Europe
Chair:	Helmut K. Anheier (Hertie School of Governance)
Discussant:	Carl Dahlström (University of Gothenburg)

12:30 - 13:30 Catered lunch

* Paper titles are preliminary, panel discussants and chairs might suffer modifications. The sessions are open to the registered participants.

13:30 – 15:00 Panel VI: Bureaucracy and Good Governance Performance
Papers:	Jan-Hinrik Meyer-Sahling (University of Nottingham) and Will Lowe (University of Maastricht) From islands of excellence to professional state administration/ Assessing the Impact of EU membership on Civil Service Professionalization in Central and Eastern Europe
	Nicholas Charron, Carl Dahlstöm and Viktor Lapuente (University of Gothenburg) No Law Without State
	Eva G. Heidbreder (Hertie School of Governance) and Gilberto Capano (Università Bologna) Ready to Participate or Resistant Patriots? National Bureaucrats, European Administration, and Global Challenges
Chair:	Gerhard Hammerschmid (Hertie School of Governance)
Discussant:	Bryane Michael (Stockholm School of Economics)

15:00 Concluding Remarks and Farewell

16:00 - Berlin walking tour (you need to registrate for this)

Contact and registration (session participation is open by registration):

Mr. Axel Rückemann, Communications and Events, Hertie School of Governance

Phone: +49-30-259 219 118, Email: events@hertie-school.org