

Press releaseGeisteswissenschaftliche Zentren Berlin e.V. (GWZ)*Regina Sarreiter

02/17/2010

<http://idw-online.de/en/news355950>

Miscellaneous scientific news/publications, Press events
Cultural sciences, Language / literature, Psychology, Social studies transregional, national

Public Talk and Discussion with Rita El Khayat and Michael Roes, 22.2.10

"Parental Authority, Sexuality and Generation between Maghreb and Mashreq" Public Talk and Discussion with Rita El Khayat and Michael Roes Time: 22 February 2010, 7pm Venue: Zentrum für Literatur- und Kulturforschung Schützenstraße 18 - 10117 Berlin Room 308 presented by Zentrum Moderner Orient (ZMO) and Hans Schiler Verlag in cooperation with Zentrum für Literatur- und Kulturforschung (ZfL). The Discussion will be in English without translation.

Rita El Khayat is a well known Moroccan author, psychiatrist, anthro-psychoanalyst and anthropologist. In 1999 she founded the Association Ainī Bennaī to broaden and promote Moroccan culture.

She published her first book "Le Monde Arabe au féminin" in 1985.

Her latest work about the Medea Complex has been recently published in German at the Verlag Hans Schiler: "Wenn sie Mütter werden - Medea und die Frauen des Mittelmeeres". (ISBN 978-3-89930-220-2)

Michael Roes is a German author and film-maker. He wrote, inter alia, the novel "Rub Al-Khali" in 1996 and the play "Madschnun Al-Malik" in 1997, which was first performed in 1998. His latest novel "Die fünf Farben Schwarz" was published in 2009.

URL for press release: <http://www.zmo.de/veranstaltungen/2010/ElKhayat-Roes220210.pdf>

URL for press release: <http://www.verlag-hans-schiler.de/index.php?events>

URL for press release: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Rita_ELKhayat

URL for press release: <http://de.wikipedia.org/wiki/MichaelL.Roes>

ZMO

Zentrum Moderner Orient

Verlag Hans Schiler